Scout Day on the Slopes

(Reading, PA) – Scouts from throughout Pennsylvania descended upon Bear Creek Mountainside Resort in Macungie on (DATE) for a “Day on the Slopes”. Over $50 individuals participated.

Local Scouts, their parents, siblings, and friends enjoyed a day of skiing, snowboarding, and tubing. The scouts learned winter survival techniques and basic first aid from Bear Creek’s ski patrol.

Over 25 volunteers from across the council territory helped make the event possible.

For nearly 100 years the Boy Scouts of America has provided youth leadership and character development programs. The Hawk Mountain Council today serves nearly 8,000 youth through the leadership 2,000 adult volunteers throughout central Pennsylvania.
