

HAWK MOUNTAIN SCOUT RESERVATION

YEAR-ROUND RENTAL CAMP GUIDE

2021-2022

Thank you for choosing to come to Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation.

We are proud of our facility, and we hope you enjoy yourself on your visit.

Leadership in the outdoors, is one of the things that separates us from other youth serving organizations. We appreciate you taking the time and effort to bring your Scouts here.

This guide is meant to help you with the policies and procedures of camp, information and emergency procedures you will need to make your trip successful.

Please make sure that you are following the Guide to Safe Scouting, and the S.A.F.E Checklist. Both, of these documents will help you in planning your trip keeping safety first.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at:

Essential Youth Protection Guidelines

- Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation and the Hawk Mountain Scout Council adhere to all Youth Protection guidelines of the Boy Scouts of America.
- The responsibility for caring for your campers at camp is a 24-hour-a-day duty.
- All adults must be current members with all their background checks and Youth Protection Training.
- All adults must follow all the Guidelines to Safe Scouting.

Good Stewardship

- Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation is a year-round camping facility maintained by the Hawk Mountain Scout Council.
- The Camp Ranger, Council Camping Committee, Council Properties and Maintenance Committee, volunteer Camp Masters and the Council Program Director work hard to maintain and improve our facilities.
- The continued improvement of our facilities is dependent on the care given to our facilities.
- We must be good stewards of our facility, equipment and environment so that they may remain for others to enjoy in future years.

Environmental Statement

- The Boy Scouts of America fosters environmental respect and "Leave No Trace". All Scouts and Leaders are charged to protect and nurture our environment, especially when at camp.
- Help us keep your camp clean by:
 - Recycling – Reduce the use of all paper, Styrofoam, and plastic. Reuse containers and recycle. Dispose of your trash appropriately and take home your recycling.
 - Low Impact Camping – Be gentle to your campsite and surrounding area. Always stay on established paths. Don't cut, remove, trample or damage any plants or trees. Never build any new fire rings anywhere.
 - Follow the Outdoor Code always.
 - As an American, I will do my best to:
 - Be clean in my outdoor manners
 - Be careful with fire
 - Be considerate in the outdoors
 - Be conservation minded

"All Scouting functions meetings, and activities should be conducted on a smoke-free basis, with smoking areas located away from all participants." Smoking is not permitted in front of campers. HMSR has designated smoking areas. All cigarettes and tobacco must be disposed of properly. The same policy applies to electronic cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, and vaping as well. Please see the Camp Master for the designated locations.

Bullying and Hazing

- Initiations, hazing or bullying of any type is in violation of the BSA Youth Protection policies and is cause for removal of adults or youth from camp.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES IN CAMP

The best defense against any emergency is preparedness. Being prepared, understanding the policies and practices governing the actions of adults and campers is the adult leader's responsibility in camp. The safety and well-being of each and every camper is our primary concern, and therefore, these procedures are not optional. Your help and cooperation in these situations, is required to ensure a positive outcome.

At no time should any adult or camper contact or allow themselves to be interviewed by the media. In emergency situations, the Scout Executive is the only designated spokesperson. This policy keeps unfounded rumors to a minimum and eliminates unnecessary worry for parents and the public.

If the camp is sounding a general alarm you will hear a siren. The designated meeting point is the Welcome Center. Make sure you orient yourself to where it is in comparison to where you are staying.

In an emergency, if it is a matter of life and death please make sure your campers and adults are safe, and then dial 911.

- Your location is Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation, 402 Blue Mountain Road, Schuylkill Haven PA 17971
- Your camp site is? Make sure you know where you are staying.

After any incident or near miss an incident report must be filed. You will find a form in your Camp Guide.

General Emergencies

- Child Abuse
 - Any incident or suspicion of abuse must be reported immediately to the Council Program Director on site. If not available, call the Camp Ranger directly. Reports will be kept confidential. As a mandated reporter you will also have to file a report with Child Line at 800-932-0313. They are open 24 hours 7 days a week.
- Fatalities and Death
 - In the unlikely event that a fatality occurs in camp, the Council Program Director must be notified immediately. If not available, call the Camp Ranger.
 - She is trained to help in situations like this in accordance with BSA and Local policies.
 - The Scout Executive will work with you on notification of parents, etc...
- Lost Person
 - Report any person whom you suspect to be missing to the Council Program Director and if not available the Camp Ranger. Do not delay in reporting a missing or lost person.
 - Remove your campers and adults to one location.
 - With the Council Program Director and the Camp Ranger we will work with you and follow the HMSR Lost Person Protocol.

Natural Disasters

- Fire
 - Remove your campers and adults away from danger.
 - Dial 911
 - Call the Camp Program Director and if not available the Camp Ranger.
 - At no time should you risk your life or injury to fight a fire.
- Flood
 - Move to high ground.
 - Call the Camp Program Director and if not available the Camp Ranger.

Weather-Related and Environmental Emergencies

- Weather Related Emergencies

- During lightning storms, seek shelter inside a building or in your pavilion.
- You can call the Council Program Director and if not available the Camp Ranger if you need to move to another space.
- Keep away from water, metal objects, isolated trees or trees that are much taller than adjacent trees.
- If under tarps or tents, stay away from metal poles.

- Communicable Diseases

- Please use the CDC communicable disease protocols, as well as your organization protocols.
- If a camper or adult has a fever and is going home, you must notify the Council Program Director if not available the Camp Ranger.
- You will be advised on the next steps.
- An incident form will need to be filled out.

- Medical Emergency

- If your medical problem is an emergency dial 911.
- Call the Camp Program Director and if not available the Camp Ranger.
- Make sure your campers and other adults are away from the incident.
- An incident form will need to be filled out.

- Contact with Wildlife

- Hawk Mountain Scout Reservation is home for many animals. Some are very commonly seen: deer, rabbits, squirrels, groundhogs, skunks, raccoons, turtles, snakes and frogs. Wild turkey, pheasant, geese, owls, hawks and several types of owls and birds can be seen or heard here at camp.
- Please keep in mind that these animals make their residence here on a year-round basis.
- If you encounter any while on a hike or in your campsite, do not disturb, injure or attempt to chase it away.
- Do not disturb or destroy any dens or nests.
- Wild animals are very unpredictable when they feel threatened.
- Any camper or adult who intentionally injures, harasses, or kills any of the wildlife in camp will be held legally and financially responsible. Please report any cases to the Camp Ranger.
- At times there have been sightings of bobcats, coyote, fox and bears in and around camp. Most likely these animals will stay away due to the amount of activity in camp.
- Typically, we have the most trouble with the raccoons, squirrels, chipmunks and mice. They love to break into food storage areas and have even been known to chew through an entire cooler chest to get at food.
- Keep your food in airtight containers, away from tents and sleeping areas or you may have an unwanted visitor rummaging his way into a backpack, footlocker or sleeping bag.
- Leftover food should NEVER be thrown into the woods.
- Strange Behavior – If you come in contact with an animal that is behaving strangely, (staggering, lying still-not trying to flee, seems sickly, foaming at the mouth etc...) or if the animal is nocturnal and is being seen during the day. IMMEDIATELY report it to the Camp Ranger. DO NOT ATTEMPT to pick up or touch the animal.
- Bites & Scratches – If you are bitten or scratched by any wildlife please seek first aid. Never pick up or touch an animal that is injured or dead. You put yourself at great risk if you do. Contact the Camp Ranger with the details.
- Ticks – Insect and tick repellent (with high content of DEET) is highly recommended, however they are not totally foolproof. Wearing long pants, long sleeved shirts and hats while in tick infested areas cuts down on the risk of bites. Educate your campers about ticks and have them check themselves on a regular basis while at camp. If a tick is found, you should remove it and keep it in a plastic bag. Make sure the parent gets it in case a rash forms where you were bit.
- Mosquitoes & West Nile Virus – The best defense against contracting this disease is to take proper precautions when in areas that may have a large population of mosquitoes. Wearing a good insect repellent (with high content of DEET) and loose-fitting clothing that provides maximum coverage over exposed is a good start.

- Bats – Many people fear bats and associate them with spreading of diseases. While there are some health risks, they are also an important part of our ecosystem, and thrive in and around camp. Keep your eyes open. Special care should be taken to avoid coming in contact with them. Anyone coming into contact with a bat – whether bitten or by touch must fill out an incident report and report it to the parents. You should never intentionally touch or handle a bat living or dead.
